

Bo. Naranjo, Moca, PR

Farm with lush vegetation
This farm, with lush vegetation and fertile land, is an excellent opportunity for those who want to live away from the hustle and bustle of the city and enjoy the singing of birds, beautiful sunsets and quiet nights. This property has irregular topography and is affected by a ravine that crosses it along its entire western boundary. Water and electricity service available on the street. Coordinates: 18.335538, -67.120612
